

E OLA E MOLOKAI

lonomusic

Ina <sup>D</sup>paha `oe a e ike ana

Ika <sup>A</sup>huli`anapa aka o kukui

E Ola E, E Ola E <sup>D</sup>Moloka`i <sup>A</sup>

If you could only see the beauty
The kukui leaf that glitters as it turns
May the healing be granted

Ko <sup>D</sup>omaka pule ua ka ua

O <sup>A</sup>`oe ika nahele o Lanikaula

By the utterance of prayers, rain falls
You are in the forest of Lanikaula
May the healing be granted

<sup>D</sup>Pehea la ia e lewa hou ai

Me he <sup>A</sup>manu e kani nei

How can I travel on
The bird is singing
May the healing be granted

Let the healing be granted. This song speaks of the healing power of Moloka`i. From the prophet Lanikaula to the songs of the birds.
